

The Justice Reinvestment Journey

Learn more about Justice Reinvestment

Discover what Justice Reinvestment is all about and hear about how other communities have put it in practice. Think about how it might work for your community & plan for the next steps.

Bring Everyone Together for a Yarn

Get everyone in the community involved, from local elders, different family groups, service providers, government agencies and anyone else! Together, unpack your vision for your community, and what is stopping that from being a reality. Think about local strengths and assets, and unpack local challenges and potential solutions

Make A Plan for Change

Form a partnership around a shared vision and a common goal, then decide how you will work together to make it happen. Identify community priorities, plan for measuring impact, and bring together the people, information, data, and resources you need to start taking action.

Putting the Plan Into Action!

Work together to bring your ideas to life and start making changes that work towards your common goal. Share your JR story and review and refine plans along the way.

Regroup, Refocus & Reinvest

As you achieve social, cultural and economic benefits, aim to re-invest savings into new projects. Focuses on sustaining a strong partnership and shared vision, identifying emerging issues or new goals and strategies as you go.
